Dear friends in Christ:

On Pentecost, Pope Francis met in Rome in St. Peter's Square with nearly a quarter of million members of the "new movements" of the Church. This was a practice initiated by Blessed John Paul II and continued by Pope Benedict and now Pope Francis. The "new movements" are groups of laity that aim to deepen the life of faith and Christian life. There are numerous groups throughout the world and they each have their own personality and charisma. We have several groups active here in our parish: Focolare, Rengum Christi, Opus Dei, The Heralds of the Gospel to name but a few. Distinctive of the "new movements" as opposed to the 'older movements' in the Church is that they are directed to the laity and not to the vowed or ordained vocations. While some of the new movements have priests and vowed religious, they are not religious orders such as the Dominicans, Franciscans or Jesuits. Characteristic of many of these "new" groups are the large number of youth and the enthusiasm of their members. This is certainly evident when they gather in Rome for these special celebrations.

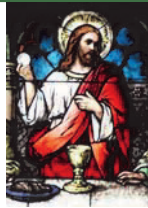

As has become most common, especially since the pontificate of John Paul II, these massive gatherings often take on the characteristics of a pep rally. The special celebration for youth held every few years, World Youth Day has been called a "Catholic Woodstock". I remember the lament of a shop owner several years ago in Denver when World Youth Day was held there who said that hundreds of thousands of Catholic youth from all over the world came to the Mile High City with the Ten Commandments and a twenty dollar bill and they didn't break either! Part of the gatherings, even at the regular audiences in Rome has become the yelling or chanting of the Pope's name as at a soccer game or sporting event. "J P 2 – we love you!", "Ben-e-det-to (clap, clap, clap) Ben-e-det-to (clap, clap, clap)" and most recently, "Fran-cis-co, Fran-cis-co". On the vigil of Pentecost while meeting with many of the youthful members of the "new movements" Pope Francis took some questions and addressed the crowds with some "off the cuff" remarks. He acknowledged the chanting of his name and asked that instead of chanting his name that the young people chant the name of Jesus! He reminded them that Jesus is in our midst and that the crowds should shout out the name of Jesus! When I read this, I was ready to shout out "YES!!!!!" Thank you Pope Francis! Furthermore, I am confident that Blessed John Paul and Pope Benedict couldn't agree more! It is wonderful and exciting to be near the pope, but Pope Francis is 100% on target, Jesus is in our midst and he is the true cause of our joy and excitement!

As Catholics, we have committed our lives to the Lord Jesus. He is our Savior and he comes 'to strengthen us in Word and Sacrament!' We should shout out the name and love of Jesus in our words, actions and attitudes all day, every day! I still like what Pope Francis' name's sake, St. Francis of Assisi had to say, "we should preach the gospel at all times and when necessary, use words." Too often, we let things, even good things (like our love and respect for the pope – or our family – or our work or earthly wants and desires), distract us from that which is most important in our lives, our relationship with God. When we keep God first in our hearts, minds and souls everything else works out. Our faith in God, our relationship with Jesus isn't just one among many. It is THE relationship that most defines who we are. When we love Jesus so much that we want to share his love with others, our love for others grows richer, deeper and stronger. When we love Jesus so much that we want to always follow him always, we not only grow in holiness, we grow in happiness; for holiness is the key to happiness. Pope Francis has done us a huge favor in reminding us in such a simple and beautiful way to always remember to shout out with our whole lives the name of Jesus!

In pace Christi,

Fr. Troy

When little ones get cantankerous, it is okay to take them to the nursery, cry rooms or narthex during the mass. We have four nursery rooms located in the Youth Formation Building and two cry rooms located on each side of the church. It is wonderful to have our littlest ones at church, but sometimes babies just have to cry and the cry rooms and nurseries are the best place for them at those moments.

Commemorates National Cancer Survivors Day

At any given time, 25% of our parishioners are intimately affected by cancer. On Sunday, June 2nd, CanCare and SJV honor those affected by cancer by celebrating National Cancer Survivors Day.

CanCare is a one-on-one cancer support program serving our parish. CanCare's mission is: To improve the quality of life for cancer patients and their families.

CanCare's trained volunteers, including cancer survivors and medical professionals, are matched to individuals dealing with the same cancer, same or similar treatment, age, gender, and family situation. As survivors and experienced family caregivers, they understand what it takes to fight this disease and, while doing so, keep HOPE alive.

CanCare provides support for caregivers also. All CanCare services are provided free of charge.

If cancer is impacting your life, we encourage you to contact parishioner and CanCare volunteer, Emily Prus, at 281-558-6502 or visit www.CanCare.org for more information.

Mary's Appearance in Prouille, France

Here's a look at what believers say happened when Mary appeared in Prouille, France in 1208 to a Spanish preacher named Domingo de Guzman (known in English as Saint Dominic), during which he said Mary taught him the Rosary prayer to teach others how to pray: Dominic was disappointed and frustrated that his efforts to preach the Gospel message of Jesus Christ in southern France to the Albigenses had failed. The Albigenses believed that God, who was spirit, wouldn't enter the material world. Dominic worked hard to convince the Albigenses to reflect on the life of Jesus Christ, who claimed to be God incarnated in the material world to redeem it. But the Albigenses argued with Dominic, and he left feeling like a failure. In 1208, Dominic prayed in a chapel in Prouille, France, asking Mary for encouragement and guidance. While Dominic was praying, Mary appeared to him and reportedly said: "Don't wonder that you have obtained so little fruit from your work. You've labored over barren soil, not yet watered with the dew of divine grace. When God decided to renew the face of the earth, He began by sending down on it the fertilizing rain of the Angelic Salutation. Therefore, preach my Psalter -- composed of 150 Angelic Salutations and 15 Our Fathers, and you will obtain an abundant harvest." Mary further instructed that, in between saying those simple prayers, people should reflect on the life of Jesus Christ on Earth and meditate on what it means for them in their own lives. Mary concluded by saying of the Rosary: "That prayer will never fail."

By "Angelic Salutation," Mary was referring to the greeting that Archangel Gabriel spoke to her when he announced that God wanted her to be Jesus' mother "Hail, Mary, full of grace. The Lord is with you."

The "Our Fathers," that Mary mentioned are taken from Matthew 6:9-13, in which Jesus teaches his disciples how to pray.

The Rosary prayer proved to be popular when Dominic introduced it to others after his encounter with Mary. Besides introducing the Rosary, Dominic also founded the Order of Friars Preachers (better known as the Dominicans), a worldwide religious order.
